

Star Word Directions:

Mindfully color or decorate your star as you listen for your word. The star word may come to you in the stillness of coloring or a suggestion from a family member. The word may not come to you right away. That's ok. Leave the space blank until you know you have found your guiding word for the year.

